

Carol Olmstead is Co-Chair of the NMC Outreach Committee and formerly was the Communications Chair. She co-chaired NMC's 2015 gala celebration of director Jill Scott Momaday, "Weaving Legend, Legacy, and Landscape Through Filmmaking."

Carol is a nationally-recognized Feng Shui Master Practitioner, author, and speaker with a specialty in helping clients select and display art. She has worked with diverse groups like Marriott, Discovery Communications, IKEA, the Library of Congress, and NASA, and her work has been featured in print, broadcast, and social media, including Cosmopolitan, the Washington Post, the Chicago Tribune, and the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Prior to becoming a certified Feng Shui practitioner, Carol was a public affairs consultant for government and nonprofit agencies in Washington, DC. For the American Red Cross she produced five documentary films and related print materials that were awarded the Presidential Citation for Private Sector Initiatives and are now part of the permanent collection of the Smithsonian National Museum of American History.

Carol's book, the Feng Shui Quick Guide For Home and Office: Secrets For Attracting Wealth, Harmony, and Love, received a Southwest Book Design Award and New Mexico Book Award for Best How-To Book. She is now working on her third book.